I'm still talking about the company you used to work for, that you sued in this case. Now, we introduced ourselves off the record. You are the plaintiff in the lawsuit that has been filed against Petroleum Service Corporation. Correct? A. That is correct. Q. Again, even though we have done this off the record, my name is Tom Kiggans. Sitting two people down from me is Drew Woellner. I forgot how to pronounce it. But we're both with the law firm of Phelps Dunbar. Do you know Marsha Ramsey, who is sitting directly to my left? A. Yes, I do.	11:17

I've been upgraded to third mate, which puts me at 311 a day. And that depends on if I'm working with another mate. We're like shorthanded so when I'm working as what they call the third mate, I'm making 311. It depends on who comes in. There is people who have been there longer and have a different endorsement. So when they are on, they bump me back to like entry-level pay. Q. What endorsements are you talking about? A. I'm talking about like an able-bodied seaman. Q. These are Coast Guard endorsements? A. Looking at their job openings. If it's a liquefied gas-type tankerman that they need, then if I had an LG endorsement. I could apply for that particular piece of equipment and work specifically liquefied gas. There are companies out there that do strictly liquefied gas. In my pursuit in moving on as far as the marine industry, I was unable to apply for liquefied gas tankerman because I wasn't qualified to do that, because I didn't have the endorsement on my MMD. So I could only do dangerous liquids as a tankerman.	11:34	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	But I am still currently active with Crowley. Crowley, as I understand, doesn't do liquefied gas transfers. A. I can't say that they don't. Q. You don't know? A. I'm not sure, because I hired on when I applied, it was for they were looking for an OS with a DL endorsement. So that's when I Googled or looked up Crowley from their home page to apply for a position, I was only applying for things that I qualified for. I have no idea whether they do it or not. I'm not sure. Q. Do you have any idea what percentage of PSC's work involved liquefied gases during the time you were	11:39	A. It's either Roman or who is the other guy? My supervisor is Dela Cruz. I can't think of the third supervisor's name at this point. Q. Mason Dela Cruz? A. Yeah. Mason was my mediate supervisor. A. He was my supervisor the entire A. He was my supervisor the entire time. Q. One other rule about deposition, we're not supposed to talk over each other. A. I'm sorry. Q. That's okay. I was going to tell you to let me finish the question. A. Okay. Q. Just so our record is clear, Mason Dela Cruz was your supervisor the entire time you worked for 11:42 Petroleum Service Corporation? A. Yes.
